MCCORRISTON-SMITH.

Wedding of Two Well Known Young People.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Grace McCorriston to Charles Henry Smith was celebrated last evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Jane McCorriston, upper Fort street. The Right Reverend Gulstan Robert, Bishop of Honolulu, officiated. The house was handsomely decorated both with flowers and American flags. The bridemaids were Miss Fanny McCorriston, a sister of the bride, and Miss Stella Love, a cousin. The groom's best man was F. M. Brooks. The bride was given away by her cousin, James H. Love. There was a large company of guests present, and when the newly married couple left for Lanakaha, where they will remain for a week, they left amid a perfect shower of rice and old shoes.

The groom holds an important position in the Department of Public Works. The bride is a charming young woman with a wide circle of friends.

The above is a list of the graduating class of Kamehameha Boys' School. Closing exercises were held in the gymnasium last evening. W. O. Smith delivered the annual address for the trustees. His subject was "Success." All of the graduates had essays and there was some excellent music.

RECEPTION BY LADIES.

The ladies of the Central Union church gave their annual tea yesterday afternoon to the members of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association. Following an informal reception Mrs. C. M. Hyde president of the Woman's Board, Rev. William M. Kincaid and Rev. G. L. Pearson, welcomed the visitors. Responses were made by Rev. J. M. Lidgate of Hilo, Rev. S. E. Bishop and others who had met on Hawaii, and the late Dr. C. M. Hyde, and the late Chief Justice Judd.

REFORM ON KAUAI.

Leung Chi-tso Again Meets With Great Success.
The Bow Wong Society received a letter by the steamer James Makee from Tom Dow, secretary of Leung Chi-tso, about the latter's work on the island of Kauai. It is reported that the reformer is meeting with the same success on Kauai as he met on Hawaii, and that a single Chinaman so far, has declared himself to reform. A branch of the Bow Wongs has been formed on Kauai, and already has a large membership.

Leung arrived at Lihue on his trip from Honolulu at 3 o'clock in the morning, but nevertheless there were about fifty Chinese on hand to receive him. When morning came there was another reception, and meetings were held, all the Chinamen, who had heard of Leung's work from Honolulu, being enthusiastic in his support. Koloa, Anahola and Hanalei were visited in succession, and at each place the same experience was repeated. It begins to look as if the empress dowager had not many followers among the Chinese of the Islands, and the Bow Wongs are jubilant over the success of their movement.

The sheriff at Kauai gave permission to some of the men who were with Leung to carry arms for his protection, and they are keeping careful guard over him. Leung will be back here next Sunday. He will go to Maui next, and after his work is done there, will take a steamer for San Francisco.

Don't Preach

Economy these good times some one says—but the smokers we cater to are men of affairs who know what's what and we'll get their cigar trade if we convince them they save money buying here.

We pay a little more than some dealers for cigars to get extra care in the selection of the tobacco leaf and for better work.

Our specialty is selling imported cigars that you pay more for elsewhere—and don't get as good tobacco either.
